

iFightBack®

Important Notes:

Once you install iFightBack be sure to go to Help → Help Contents → How to Setup iFightBack. See also https://selfdefensesoftware.com/setting_up_ifightback.html

To use iFightBack Laser Target and/or Laser Videos you will need an inexpensive web cam. Go to our main web page at <http://selfdefensesoftware.com/contact.html> for a list and links to the ones we recommend. (Note: The "driver" for any Logitech webcam should be the Microsoft USB Video Device driver. Go to Help -> Logitech webcam MS driver installation for more details.)

Also for running Laser Target and/or Laser Videos you will need a laser training cartridge for your own gun or a SIRT type laser training pistol. See https://selfdefensesoftware.com/laser_cartridges.html for notes and guidelines on laser cartridges that will or will not work with iFightBack.

See our Help page at <https://selfdefensesoftware.com/Help.html> for many other helpful guides.

Tech-Support:

iFightBack: If you have any questions or any problems with iFightBack, go to Help -> Contact Us within the iFightBack program. Or you can go directly to our Contact Us web page at <http://selfdefensesoftware.com/contact.html> or email directly to support@SelfDefenseSoftware.com

➡ Currnet Version 3.1.15:

This current version of iFightBack® does not contain all of the available scenarios. Go to the Help menu pad at the top left of your iFB screen (not the Help box on the screen) and click on “Check for New Scenarios...” to download any scenarios that are not already contained in the iFightBack Installer. Future updates to this new version will be updated via the Help “Check for Updates...” menu pad.

If you purchased iFB through Amazon then we do not have your email address. Please contact us by going to our <http://selfdefensesoftware.com/contact.html> page to let us know your email address so that we can email you the Registration Number. If you purchased iFB from our www.SelfDefenseSoftware.com web site or eBay then we already have your email address. Your email address will not be sold or used for any other purpose.

We are dedicated to gun safety and personal and home defense preparedness. We hope that you enjoy and benefit from using the iFightBack interactive firearms training simulator.

Please keep in touch. All feedback, questions, and even complaints are welcomed and needed. It is through contact with our customers that we hope to correct any problems, add features, and make iFightBack a better product over time.

Thank you from Self-Defense Software.
